THE RECENT STRIKE

DISCUSSED ON ITS MERITS WITH OTHER IMPORTANT MATTERS

Mr. Murphy Plainly and Fearlessly Handles the Corporate and Employee Labor Problems.

A reporter from the Journal-Miner dropped in again today to see if Mr. Murphy could tell him anything new about the situation at Poland-Lynx Creek tunnel. Mr. Murphy stated that there was nothing new to report.

Mr. Martin, superintendent for the company, had written him that there would be no difficulty in filling the places vacated by the machine men and miners; that there was absolutely no reason whatever for the men quitting, unless they thought they could embarrass the company and by so doing compel the company to increase their pay—which did not indicate a very friendly or cooperative spirit.

Mr. Murphy remarked that development work, such as running the Poland-Lynx Creek tunnel, would be looked upon as a big undertaking in any state or territory and should receive the support of the entire community.

The completion of this tunnel will mean millions of dollars to Lynx Creek and Walker mining districts; also affect favorably portions of Groom Creek and Groom Creek, and incidentally mean a great deal to Prescott. It must be conceded that the present prosperous business conditions in Prescott are due almost entirely to the opening, development and operation of the mines in this section, and every opportunity to encourage and stimulate mining should receive the hearty support of each and every resident of the city and county.

Mr. Murphy further remarked that it was particularly unfortunate that when a light on the subject of mining came, certain saloon men who encourage disturbance and unsettled conditions between employer and employee; that while it is true that for a time immediate following a strike, miners are apt to congregate at the saloons and under the excitement spend their hard earned money rather more freely than they otherwise would, it is not fair to say that the saloon man is only temporary, and in no sense to be compared to a steady and permanent business such as that one can have when a company is prosperous and the mines are in full operation. Also that the small merchant or storekeeper, doing business in and about mining camps, is not always wrong, nor are they by any means always right, but that as a rule predominates with the miners as well as with the companies, would more often succeed if it were not for the influence of saloons.

Mr. Murphy indicates that too often the saloon is the center of the mischief making, and that too often the saloon is the center of the mischief making, and that too often the saloon is the center of the mischief making.

Mr. Murphy further stated that the saloon is the center of the mischief making, and that too often the saloon is the center of the mischief making, and that too often the saloon is the center of the mischief making.

A TIDAL WAVE OF APPROVAL

THE MORRISON RATIFICATION LAST NIGHT UNEXCELLED IN THE HISTORY OF POLITICAL ASSEMBLAGES OF NORTHERN ARIZONA.

Plain Language Advanced in Argument on All Matters, No Personal Mud Tatters Tended.

We believe that republicanism in politics will signify triumph in Arizona this year, and from the Little Colorado on the east to the Big Colorado on the west there will answer the appeals of devotion and patriotism of the people.

Reliable information from Washington indicates that construction work on both the Tonto Basin and San Carlos dam will be begun within a year. The first work will be on the Tonto Basin.

The University of Arizona opened for the new term yesterday. The enrollment for the first day numbered 138. The opening exercises were brief. Chancellor Wm. Herring addressed a few remarks to the students and pupils on the start of the new term. A much larger attendance is expected during the coming week and it is thought that the records will be broken. Students are arriving daily to attend the university.

Behind the opening of the campaign of the conservative party, which prevailed the patriotism of the party holding the reins of government, the statehood question in its hands, the national irrigation question for fruit and the possibility of industrial proportions, the possibility of an administrative regard in public improvements—in all for once, harmony.

Who is there that is so close-mouthed that will take away from Robt. Morrison the noble sentiments he expressed last night as he opened the campaign in behalf of his party and himself and place him in a narrow and inconsistent channel of partisan vituperation and personal selfishness. Did he not openly and candidly state to the people the truth and what he believed to be the truth, and did he not do so in fairness and sacredness to himself and to the people? On all matters did he not state his position as a citizen and as a man, and did he not do so in fairness and sacredness to himself and to the people? On all matters did he not state his position as a citizen and as a man, and did he not do so in fairness and sacredness to himself and to the people?

Never before in the history of Arizona and its political strife has such a meeting taken place, and from the purity of purpose in national issues to the rights of the laboring man, did not Mr. Morrison speak patriotically in the first and noblest of the latter? Did not his hearers feel a kindred in his sentiments as he gave to the wage men of this section the regard due them and their vocations? Did he not also suppress what is also known of his opponent in the line of labor hostility, that the democratic candidate for congress has to shoulder in this campaign in public condemnation? Of all the political gatherings ever to take place in Yavapai county, this was the most patriotic. It was so pure an expression of principle. It was so pure an expression of principle. ## OFF HIS "CABEZA."

A Tenderfoot Attempts to Mislead People on a Pioneer's Candidacy.

The following appears in the Jerome Reporter:

"Clark, the young lawyer nominated against O'Sullivan, has not been in the county long enough to take his hat off. These Cocino politicians who come to Yavapai to teach the natives the game of politics should be put on probation."

The above may be put down in political and personal argument as a lie. Assailing as it does E. S. Clark, the republican nominee for district attorney, and coming as it does from an unscrupulous channel, we desire to set in justice to Mr. Clark, and as a rebuke to both Thompson, as editor, and O'Sullivan, the candidate, that in the years 1886, 1887, 1888 and 1889, E. S. Clark, in all those years, not only lived and worked in Prescott, but he also lived and worked in the Republic of Mexico.

Never before in the history of Arizona and its political strife has such a meeting taken place, and from the purity of purpose in national issues to the rights of the laboring man, did not Mr. Morrison speak patriotically in the first and noblest of the latter?
